

“No Whining at Papa's House journals the time he spent receiving a bone marrow transplant. David in his book records his daily struggles, his ups and downs, and his daily look to the Lord for courage and strength.”

Tom Moore, co-host of the Harris & Moore Expedition through the Bible radio broadcast is pleased to announce the publication of David Harris'

No Whining at Papa's House

A daily log of his struggles with and the blessings of Cancer

This is a story of two physicians, one is for the physical wellness of our life and body, ... and the other the Great Physician. ...This is also a story of a very plain individual who is undergoing the trial of his life depending on and trusting in, his two Physicians. ...This is a trial of patience and a reminder that whatever the circumstances may be, life still has to be lived to the very best of our abilities. We should always expect it of ourselves, others will expect it of us, and the Lord demands the best that we have to offer.
